Dyslexia and Reading Disabilities Online Courses for Parents and Teachers

*Introduction to Everything Dyslexia

This course is where you should start if you're looking for general information on dyslexia related topics such as what it is and isn't, characteristics, diagnosis, assessments and effective instruction for children who struggle with reading and spelling, as well as the social-emotional aspects of dyslexia.

This is where you'll discover WHY instruction for these students needs to be different!

*What Works for Dyslexia: Multi-sensory Structured Language Teaching Strategies

This course is all about WHAT research shows is the most effective instruction for students with dyslexia and other reading difficulties. Videos in this course will allow you to see the teaching strategies in a wide variety of settings and with various ages of students. You don't have to be an expert in teaching or literacy! You'll finish this course with strategies you can use right away-whether you teach at home or at school.

Dyslexia and Reading Disabilities Online Courses for Parents and Teachers

*The Ultimate Field Guide: Making Sense of How the English Language Works

You may not have been taught HOW the English language works when you were in school and since you can't teach what you don't know, this course is for you. You will discover how to help children "break the code" of our language to become better readers and writers. Join this class to become a "word nerd!"
